

Conference Schedule

Thursday, July 15th 2010

- 2.00 pm Welcome and Introduction
Alf Lüdtke & Herbert Reinke
Jens Jäger & Ralph Jessen
- 2.30 pm, Panel I: Policing the Colonies
Chair: Alf Lüdtke
- Nitin Varma: Privatisation of Arrest and the Construction of the Exceptional: Authority, Discipline and Labour in the 19th Century Colonial Plantations of North East India
- Marieke Bloembergen: The Late Colonial State and the Good Policeman. Policing, Intelligence and Change in the Netherlands-Indies
- 4.00 pm – 4.30 pm Coffee Break
- 4.30 pm Open Panel
- Jürgen Krasser: Have Austrians Become Allergic to their Police since the 1950s? Dimensions of Widening Circles of Identification and their Contribution to an Understanding of the Questioning of Authority
- 7.00 pm Reception

Friday, July 16th 2010

- 9.30 am, Panel II: Erosion of Power
Chair: Ralph Jessen
- Herbert Reinke: „Partners for Order?“. Observations on the History of Policing 'Order' in Germany
- John C. Wood: Police Powers and their Limits in 1920s Britain

11.00 am – 11.15 am Coffee Break

- Kevin Karpiak: Police/State: What French Police Reform can tell us About Contemporary State Re-Figurations
- Gerd Sälter: Ermittlungen in Kriminalfällen in der Vormoderne. Private Initiative und polizeiliche Tätigkeit vor der allgemeinen Durchsetzung des Gewaltmonopols

12.45 pm – 2.30 pm Lunch

2.30 pm Open Panel Chair: Jens Jäger

- Sebastian Rojek: The Construction of the “Hochstapler” (Impostor) in German Criminology and Literature: 1880-1930
- Catherine Denys: Circulation and Construction of Police Knowledge in Europe. A Report on the CIRSAP (Construction and Circulation of European Policing Knowledge)-Network

4.00 pm – 4.30 pm Coffee Break

- Immanuel Baumann & Andrej, Stephan: Reflecting its own History – A Project Concerning the Development of the German Federal Criminal Police Office (Bundeskriminalamt) 1952-1981
- Andreas Mix: Police and the Nazi Regime. A Project of the German Historical Museum and the German Police College

7.30 pm Conference Dinner

Saturday, July 17th 2010

9.30 am, Panel III: Conflicting Policing Chair: Klaus Weinbauer

- Jeannette Gabriel: "If we can't run the work relief projects without the militia then we better stop": Shifting Degrees of Violence in Response to Public Support for the U.S. Unemployed Workers Movement - 1929 - 1939
- Margo de Koster: Between Myth and Tool: The Forms and Uses of the State Monopoly on Violence in Street Level Policing, 1880-1940

11.00 am – 11.15 am Coffee Break

- Thomas Welskopp: Mission Impossible. Enforcing National Prohibition in the United States, 1920-1933

12.00 – 12.30 pm Final Discussion

Location:

The conference is being held at the new senate's conference hall (Neuer Senats-saal) which is located on the first floor of the university's main building. The reception on Thursday night will take place at the Dozentencafe on the same floor.

XXIst Colloquium for Police History

International Conference
University of Cologne, Germany
Department of History

July 15th – July 17th 2010

contact & registration:

PD Dr. Jens Jäger
jens.jaeger@uni-koeln.de

convenor & organization:

PD Dr. Jens Jäger
Prof. Dr. Ralph Jessen

University of Cologne
Department of History
Albertus-Magnus-Platz
D-50923 Köln / Cologne (Germany)
Tel. o.: ++49 (0)221 470 3021
Fax. o.: ++49 (0)221 470 4996

This conference is generously funded by:

& Philosophische Fakultät der Universität zu Köln; Zentrum für Vergleichende Europäische Studien (ZEUS), Deutsche Gesellschaft für Polizeigeschichte e.V.